The background of the entire poster is a solid green color. Overlaid on this background are the dark blue silhouettes of seven people standing in a row. From left to right, there is a woman, a man, a woman, a man, a woman, a man, and a woman. They are all facing forward, though some are slightly turned towards each other. The title 'romans D'ados' is written across the middle of the silhouettes in a large, white, stylized font with a distressed, hand-painted appearance. The word 'romans' is in lowercase, while 'D'ados' is in uppercase.
